Understand the Types of Study Abroad Programs

WHAT TO KNOW

Your main options: direct enrollment (you enroll at a local university — the most immersive), exchange (through your home university—s partnership — you pay home tuition), third-party provider programs (which bundle courses, housing, and support — the most guided), and faculty-led short programs (a few weeks with your own professors). Browse and compare options in the K12 Academics directory.

Understand Credit Transfer & Academics

WHAT TO KNOW

Credits use the ECTS system (30 ECTS ≈ a full semester). Before you go, get your courses pre-approved by your home study-abroad and academic advisors so credits transfer cleanly toward your degree. You'll receive a transcript to bring home — keep syllabi and coursework in case of later evaluation.

Know the Costs & Funding

WHAT TO KNOW

Costs vary by route: exchange students usually pay home tuition; provider programs charge a program fee (bundling tuition, housing, and support); direct enrollment means affordable public tuition (or fees for non-EU), plus your living costs. Look into scholarships (the Gilman (US students), Erasmus+ (Europeans), and provider aid), and check whether your financial aid travels with you.

Check whether your home financial aid can be applied to study abroad — many students fund part of the cost this way.

Understand the Student Visa & Entry

WHAT TO KNOW

Kosovo is outside the EU and Schengen. Most international students staying over 90 days need a student visa and/or temporary residence permit (with acceptance, funds, and insurance); many nationalities enter visa-free for short stays. You'll typically show proof of acceptance, sufficient funds, housing, and health insurance. Shorter programs often need only the short-stay entry your passport allows (outside Schengen). Start early — the process takes time. Confirm current rules with the relevant consulate.
