Understand the Types of Study Abroad Programs

WHAT TO KNOW

Your main options: direct enrollment (you enroll at a local university — the most immersive), exchange (through your home university—s partnership — you pay home tuition), third-party provider programs (which bundle courses, housing, and support — the most guided), and faculty-led short programs (a few weeks with your own professors). Browse and compare options in the K12 Academics directory.

HOW TO HELP

Match the program to your goals — direct enrollment for immersion, exchange for value, a provider for support, or a faculty-led program for a short taste — then find options in the K12 Academics directory.

GOOD TO KNOW

Find and compare specific programs, providers, and host universities in the K12 Academics directory — this guide stays program-neutral.

Understand Credit Transfer & Academics

WHAT TO KNOW

Credits use the ECTS system (30 ECTS ≈ a full semester). Before you go, get your courses pre-approved by your home study-abroad and academic advisors so credits transfer cleanly toward your degree. You'll receive a transcript to bring home — keep syllabi and coursework in case of later evaluation.

HOW TO HELP

Protect your credits — get courses pre-approved by your home office, understand ECTS and local grading, and keep syllabi for transfer.

GOOD TO KNOW

Pre-approve your courses with your home study-abroad and academic advisors before departure — it's the key to clean credit transfer.

Know the Costs & Funding

WHAT TO KNOW

Costs vary by route: exchange students usually pay home tuition; provider programs charge a program fee (bundling tuition, housing, and support); direct enrollment means affordable public tuition (or fees for non-EU), plus your living costs. Turkey—s cost of living is affordable. Look into scholarships (the Gilman (US students), Erasmus+ (Europeans), and provider aid), and check whether your financial aid travels with you.

HOW TO HELP

Budget by route — exchange (home tuition), provider (one bundled fee), or direct enrollment; Turkey costs are affordable. Pursue scholarships and check aid portability.

GOOD TO KNOW

Check whether your home financial aid can be applied to study abroad — many students fund part of the cost this way.

Understand the Student Visa & Entry

WHAT TO KNOW

Turkey is not in the EU or Schengen. Most international students staying over 90 days need a student visa (obtained before travel), then a residence permit after arrival (with acceptance, funds, and insurance). You'll typically show proof of acceptance, sufficient funds, housing, and health insurance. Shorter programs often need only the short-stay entry your passport allows (Turkey is outside Schengen). Start early — the process takes time. Confirm current rules with the relevant consulate.

HOW TO HELP

Plan Health, Safety & Insurance

WHAT TO KNOW

Arrange health insurance that covers you in Turkey (some programs include it). Turkey is generally safe, with normal precautions. Know your program—s support and emergency contacts, register with your home country—s embassy if advised, and keep copies of key documents.

Prepare Language & Culture

WHAT TO KNOW

The main language is Turkish, and many universities teach in English. Even basic Turkish enriches daily life, so brush up before you go. Housing options include university residences, homestays (great for language), and shared apartments. Embrace the cultural differences — they're the point.

HOW TO HELP

GOOD TO KNOW

A homestay is a fast route to immersion — a homestay is the fastest route to language immersion.

Plan the Timeline & Apply

WHAT TO KNOW

Apply well ahead — typically a semester or two before you go. The usual order: meet your home study-abroad office, choose and apply to a program, secure course pre-approval, then arrange your visa, housing, and insurance. Turkey offers fall, spring, summer, and full-year options. Deadlines and visa processing drive the schedule.
